

Summer Associates

Meet some of our attorneys at Miller Canfield

Many of our attorneys join us through our summer program—either by accepting our offer to join the firm directly after law school, or by considering our offer during a judicial clerkship, and joining us afterward. We fill our summer program through on-campus and in-office interviews of first- and second-year law students, as well as through self-initiated contacts from students in quality law schools where we do not typically conduct on-campus interviews.

View some of the most common questions about our Summer Associate program. You are welcome to direct resumes or further questions to Michael McGee, Hiring Chair for Summer Associates and Entry Level Lawyers, or to Mary Wassel, Miller Canfield's Manager of Professional Recruitment.
